THE MEMOIRS OF TALLEYRAND.—The London correspondent of the New York Evening Post says: The rumor that "Talleyrand's Memoirs' were about to be published proves to be premature. It appears that by the terms of Talleyrand's will the memoirs cannot be given to the world before 1888. Some passages have, however, found their way before their time into publicity by the indiscretion of M. Amedee Pichot, and they bespeak a rare gift of foresight and almost prescience in the distinguished author. "There ought to be no illusion, are the words of the celebrated prince, "as to the balance established at the Congress of Vienna, which cannot be eternal. It must go sooner or later, but it promises us some years of peace. What threatens to break it at a more or less distant date are the aspirations which are becoming universal in Germany. The necessity of defence and a common danger have prepared minds for Gorman unity. The idea will go on developing, and some day one of the great Powers which belong to the confederation will desire to realize the unity for its own profit. Austria is not to be feared. Being composed of pieces and bits, and having no unity of her own, she cannot think of expecting it beyond her trontiers. It is Prussia

TIRGINIA: At Rules held in the Clerk's office of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, on the 4th day of December, 1871: George K. Witmer and George Johnston, copartners, doing business under the firm name of George K. Witmer & Co., plaintiffs, against H. Cabell Maddux, George A. Huntington and Linden Kent, defendants. In chancery and on an attachment.

The object of this suit being to recover from the said defendant, H. Cabell Maddux, $291.93, with interest thereon from the 29th day of September, 1871, and to attach in the hands of the said George A. Huntington a debt which he owes the said H. Cabell Maddux, and to subject the property conveyed by the said George A. Huntington to the said Linden Kent in trust to secure the said debt owing by the said Huntington to the said Maddux, to the payment of the plaintiff's claim.

The defendant, H. Cabell Maddux, not having entered his appearance and given security ac-cording to the act of Assembly and the rules of this Court, and it appearing by affidavit that he is not a resident of this State, it is ordered that the said defendant appear hero within one month after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit; and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, once a week for four successive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city.

This is to notify my friends and the public generally that I am now prepared to furnish them with STOVES OF ALL DESCRIP-TIONS, having made arrangements with the manufacturers which will enable me to sell at manufacturers which will enable me to sell at rates as low as the same articles can be obtained in the Northern cities. My stock is large. My experience of 30 years in the business, with my personal attention, I think entitles me to claim of the public a liberal patronage. My aim and object is, as it has always been, to deal faithfully with all, and give full value for their money. I would request of all in want of a COOKING STOVE to call and examine my cooking stove and prices before purchasing elsewhere. I also and prices occile attention to BIBB'S HEATER, For heating 3 rooms, the best Fireplace Heater, I think, that is made. Warranted in every case to act well. My stock of stoves and tinware is too varied to mention, but I would invite all in want
